Your Information.
Your Rights.
Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

Effective Date: November 11, 2023

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you from our Health Information Management (HIM) Department.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee as permitted by New York State law. Please contact our HIM Department to make a request. We may deny your request in certain, very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to health information, you may request that the denial be reviewed.
- You can ask us to amend health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete by contacting our HIM Department.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days of your request.

Ask us to amend your medical record

- You can ask us to amend health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete by contacting our HIM Department.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days of your request.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, by home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date of your request, who we shared it with and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment and healthcare operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. You may also view this notice on our website at www.mvhealthsystem.org.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have made someone your healthcare agent under a healthcare proxy or granted someone a power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information provided legal requirements are met.
- Please provide us with appropriate documentation. We will confirm that the person has this authority to act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can file a complaint if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting the Mohawk Valley Health System Privacy Officer at PO Box 479, Utica, NY 13503 or 315-624-5117 or 315-624-5050.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to Centralized Case Management Operations, 200 Independence Avenue SW, Room 509 F, HHH Building, Washington, DC, 20201, calling 1-877-696-6755 or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we can share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- We will share your information with your family, close friends or others involved in your care or payment for your care, unless you ask us not to. You have the right to request that we do not share information with individuals whom you do not want your information shared with. Please let us know so that we can share your preferences with our staff and providers.
- Share information in a disaster relief situation.
- You have the choice to not include your information in our hospital directory. If you do not want to be included in our hospital directory, please ask us.
- For fundraising efforts, when you receive a fundraising request, you have the choice to opt out from further communications.

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes.
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes.
- Sale of your information.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways:
